PA NEWG OBSERVES

Pa Newg is of the opinion that the time is coming when some regulations will have to be made about the use of the state highways by freight trucks. They will have to be kept off the roads on Sunday afternoons when traffic is at its heaviest. Yesterday there were numerous instances of trucks congesting the roads.
According to Pa Newg, and in each instance it was discovered that it was an immense freight truck that was holding up traffic.

One of the younger bloods told Pa Newg that he didn't know whether he liked trucks or not. "You have to pay too much attention to the pictures," was his explanation.

According to announcement in the churches yesterday, daylight savings time will not be observed in New Castle churches next Sunday, but the program of observing last time will be started a week later, the first Sunday of May, for Sunday church services. This is done in order to avoid confusion next Sunday, the day that the time transition is made.

There certainly must be a boom in the bus building business. During the past week several lines of buses have been driven through this city, enroute from the factory the city where they are to be used. At one time seven or eight of these big cars in a string were driven through yesterday.

Work along the state highways in building a two-foot extension with curved ends is leaving rather a dangerous trench along the concrete while the work is in progress. With the rainy weather of yesterday there was a lot of chance of cars skidding into these trenches and some did. No reports have been made of serious accidents, however.

Fishing time is here as shown by the number of fishermen and fishermen old at the camp who are making use of the fishing spots in the Neshaming River near the Mill Street bridge Saturday afternoon. Pa Newg counted 20 persons fishing at this river. As soon as one boy caught a fish, the whole camp would make a rush for the hole where the fish was caught.

of making them muddier. According

Over Score Dead In Freak Storms Over Five States

Near Tornadoes Sweep Lower
Mississippi Valley States
On Sunday

FLOODS ADD TO HORROR OF RESULT

Mississippi River Again At Flood Stage In Some Sections

International News Service.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark.,
April 22.—More than a score dead hundreds injured and property damage that may total half a million dollars, was the toll today of a series of freak windstorms that swept sections of five lower Mississippi Valley states late yesterday.

The heaviest toll of life was taken at Tiller, Ark., ninety miles southeast of Little Rock. Eleven negroes are known to have been killed outright by a tornado that cut a swath 150 yards wide through a plantation near the town. Three white children were seriously injured.

The tornado disturbances originated in northeastern Texas and spread fanlike over Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana, later dipping into sections of Missouri, Mississippi and Kansas.

Four negroes were reported killed near Dahomey, Miss., with hundreds of others injured.

Floods Add To Horror
Floods over much of the storm devasted area added to the horror and were responsible for several scattered casualties. Storms and floods together are said to have taken seven lives in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, in addition to those killed at Tiller.

Ten persons were injured at Bolivar,
Mo., and in the immediate vicinity.
One man was reported killed at Reese, Kansas. Many buildings were demolished in the rural sections of Kansas, with several persons reported seriously injured.

An accurate check on the casualties and the extent of the devastation will be impossible until wire communications over the stricken area has been restored.

Sinclair Must Serve Jail Term

Supreme Court Dismisses Petition For Rehearing
Of Case

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The last hope of Harry F. Sinclair, that might escape serving a 90 day term in the district jail for contempt of the U. S.
senate flickered out today when the U. S. supreme court dismissed his petition for rehearing and review.

The court two weeks ago affirmed his sentence but Sinclair chose to take his "rehearing-to-one chance" of securing a rehearing and thereby delay the hour when he must surrender himself for imprisonment.

Acting with his customary alacrity in such cases the high court speedily rejected his petition today.

While the court was affirming his 90-day sentence for contempt of the senate it was also affirming another sentence of six months which the millions of dollars of income received because of his agents' shadower jurors in his trial for conspiracy. The sentence appeal will not be decided for some time.

BRITISH POTTERY MEN TO VISIT NEW CASTLE

New Castle ceramists will be the hosts of a rather unusual group of visitors on Tuesday, May

The English ceramists are expected to arrive in the United States next nature of a return visit to that paid them by American ceramists last summer. On this trip, C. J. Kirk,

Central Section Of State Faces Flood Condition

Susquehanna River Rising Rapidly From Recent Heavy Rains In Upper Branches

SECTION INUNDATED AT WILKES-BARRE

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 22.—Both the north and west branches of the Susquehanna river today were on a campaign as the result of heavy rains in northern Pennsylvania and southern New York state over the weekend.

The most serious situation has developed at Wilkes-Barre, where the river has left its banks, inundating lowlands and forcing scores of families to flee their homes before the rising waters. Two deaths have resulted in this district from the flood menace. A 20-year-old girl was drowned when she fell into Mill creek, a tributary of the Susquehanna, while a man was asphyxiated while attempting to remove his car from a garage near the river front.

Towanda and Sayre report rising waters, although no serious danger was expected to develop in that district. A stage of 26 feet was expected at Wilkes-Barre today while at Towanda the water was reported at about the 16-foot stage. Binghamton, N. Y., reported a stage of 15.5 feet as the result of a one and a half inch fall of rain.

Adding to the rising waters of the Susquehanna were the torrents poured in by the Chemung river, a tributary, which rose to 16.2 feet at Corning, N. Y., as the result of a two-inch fall of rain. The Chemung river was said to be higher than at any time since 1914 when the disastrous April flood occurred.

Hundreds Hear Noted Minister Sunday Evening

Builders And Rainbow Girls Have Joint Service At Cathedral

DR. H. T. KERR IS EVENING'S SPEAKER

Many Musical Numbers Also Part Of Impressive
Program

In the annual joint services of the Builders and the Rainbow Girls, in years to come the equal of Sunday evening's service may be reached but it is doubtful if they can hope for any service that will surpass it. While it was the first such joint service, the Cathedral auditorium was filled from pit to roof, save for a few scattering seats in the second balcony.

For the service the organizations had Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr, pastor of the Shadybrook Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, but better known as a radio minister. The many services he has broadcast from Pittsburgh have earned him fame throughout the length and breadth of the land and the natural curiosity of local people to see him in person was more than justified in the splendid address he presented.

Resembles A Commencement
One might have thought that the service was a commencement exercise. Opening the evening the Rainbow Girls, clad in white marched into the auditorium headed by the American flag. Back of them came the Order of Builders, both organizations being sponsored by the Masonic Fraternity and the wives of members.

The service was opened with C. W.
Herman Hess in charge. He introduced Dr. G. S. Bennett of Bethany College, who is supplying the pulpit of the First Christian church. Following his invocation, Dr. Bennett read the 12th chapter of Romans for the Scripture lesson.

The hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," followed and Mrs. Helen Urmon Peck sang that hymn which was composed by Ira D. Sankey, the "Ninety and Nine." Prayer was offered by Rev. Walter E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, after which the quartet of the First Presbyterian church sang "In Thy Hallowed Presence." The quartet is composed of Miss Mary Clark, Mrs.
Helen Peck, Arthur Thomas and Russell Urmon. The accompaniment was by Mrs. Paul Browne Patterson.

The offering was received after which Mrs. Browne K. Thacker sang "He Shall Give His Angles Charge Over Thee." She was accompanied by Albert A. Taylor, organist of the First
M. E. church, who was the organist of the evening.

Splendid Sermon
Dr. Kerr, the speaker of the evening delivered a most appropriate address. While it carried a message for all the adults present, it was peculiarly suited to the young men and

SUNDAY DRIVING HALTED BY RAIN

Ten Pennsylvanians lost their lives in automobile crashes during the week-end and 29 were more or less seriously injured, International News
Service's weekly check showed today.

For a second week-end since the motoring season began no deaths directly attributable to automobiles were recorded in the Pittsburgh area, although 16 persons were injured, including five children.

Of the 16 Pennsylvanians killed, eight met death within the limits of the state, while a couple were drowned at Highlands, N. J., when their auto went over an embankment into a creek.

Pittsburgh—Eight persons injured,
of whom four were children.
New Kensington—Mother and daughter hurt when they stepped in

PLAN TO TAKE VOTE ON SEWER BOND ISSUE

Citizens of New Castle may vote on a bond issue for sewers should members of council act favorably on an ordinance which was advocated by Councilman Walter Tyler today. Solicitor R. M. White has been delegated to prepare the measure as the result of action in council at city hall today.

Following a discussion about the recent rainstorm and the aftermath of flooded cellars and damage, Councilman Tyler said some action should be taken.

He followed this by presenting a motion calling upon the solicitor to prepare an ordinance which would have the citizen vote for or against a bond issue to alleviate the sewer condition.

AIRPORTS FAIL TO GIVE CLUES

Letters On Belt Buckle May Give Clue As To Identi-
tity Of Man

ERIE, Pa., April 22.—Authorities here today were seeking a clue to the identity of a body of a man, believed to have been an aviator, which was washed ashore on Lake Erie about eight miles east of here yesterday.

That the body may be that of an unknown aviator is based upon the report received by Coroner D. S. Hanley from E. K. Rentner of Erie, that he had seen what appeared to him to be a blazing plane, plunge into the water off Erie harbor at midnight
April 13.

No trace of a craft has been found.
No fliers missing
A checkup was made at that time
at Cleveland and Buffalo airports.
No planes were reported missing at either place, and further inquiries failed to bring word of a missing craft or pilot.

However, the finding of the body yesterday, with the head still encased in a helmet, led Coroner Hanley to believe that another air accident had claimed at least one more victim.
The body was found by Raymond Stark, identification marks had disappeared with the exception of the letter "C" on an initial belt buckle, and the abbreviations of the U. S.
service ships tattooed on the arms.
The ships named were the Tennessee,
Mayflower, T. T. B. No. 5, Teal and Langdon.

Besides his helmet the man wore a heavy sweater, dark trousers and a blouse bearing the letter "C".
He had no shoes. It is common knowledge that shoes will fly off a body falling from a great height, officials said.

Volunteer Firemen Given Exoneration

Will Not Have To Pay City Personal Taxation For 1929

Council today did not lose any time exonerating members of the Volunteer firemen of New Castle from personal taxation.

The recommendation was made by Councilman Davies. It was seconded by Councilman Reeves. The vote was unanimous.

Fire Chief Lynn submitted the list who had requested exoneration.
"This same thing came up a year ago April and no action was taken until the fall, for 1928 taxes," said
Burns. "Let us dispose of it."

Davies' motions to exonerate the volunteers followed.
City and school employees are banned from the exoneration.

President Says Law Enforcement Vital Challenge

STARTLING FACTS ARE PRESENTED

NEW YORK, April 22.—
Before a large gathering of newspaper editors from all sections of the country, assembled at the annual meeting of the Associated Press, President Hoover today met the crime wave face to face and called for a new deal in the matter of law enforcement and observance. He asked for the united support of the press in his drive to that end and he warned that the country is faced "with a national necessity of the first degree," which actually is endangering the very foundations of government.

The President singled out no particular law. Rather, he made a number of startling statements such as:
Starting statements:
"We are in a relatively more unsafe in the United States than in any other civilized country in the world."
"In many of our great cities murder can apparently be committed with impunity."

Rev. Bennett Accepts Call

Bethany College Professor To Become First Christian Church Pastor

Rev. G. S. Bennett, instructor of Bible at Bethany college at Bethany,
W. Va., accepted the call to the pastorate of the First Christian church on the square of this city at the congregational meeting Sunday morning.

Rev. Bennett was given an unanimous call by the congregation at a special called meeting on Sunday April 14. He will begin his pastorate with the local church on June 15 following the close of the college year at Bethany college.

The congregation is much pleased that Rev. Bennett has decided to become the pastor of the church. He has been supplying the pulpit for the last eight months and has become well acquainted with the large congregation. Previous to becoming an instructor in Bethany college Rev.
Bennett was pastor of one of the large
Christian churches of Cleveland, O.

Market Today Is Irregular

Cross Currents Seen Today In Stock Market; "Small Fry" Are Returning

PRICE MOVEMENTS ARE PROGRESSING

By W. S. COUSINS, International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, April 22.—Cross currents in the stock market today were marked by the extreme irregularity of price movements of the active industrial stocks some of which advanced sharply when buying power was properly applied, only to drop off a point or two when special demands of the buyers had been taken care of. Wall Street saw the first evidence today of the return to the market of some of the "small fry" who had been squeezed out in the March reaction. Only a fair sized rally in price, with signs of an easier money market, could entice back the smaller traders who were so badly burnt in the last violent reaction, with the 15 and 20 per cent call loan market increasing the burden of the margin speculators; but this rally has been in progress now for nearly a week and the losses of thousands of these small traders have been recovered.

Bankers and brokers in the financial district were delighted with President Hoover's sound financial reasoning in the agricultural relief emergency program now before Congress. The Farm Bloc has been put in its place, and given the benefit of the best economic advice in a decade. While the president has assured the country that no halfhearted program of farm relief for political purposes only will ever reach the statute books. The forward price movements in progress last week in the motor car, steel, theatrical and specialty stocks carried through on a moderate scale today and prices of a dozen or more of the favorites were pushed up by post cooperation from 1 to 5 points above Saturday's close.

one of the White House scenographers, and the usual secret service operatives, newspaper men and photographers. A very brief trip. Mr. Hoover's stay in New York will be of the briefest. He will arrive just in time for lunch, and he plans to depart for the capital again immediately upon conclusion of his speech. That the executive has a message he wants to reach the country in extensive fashion was indicated by the arrangements made for the relaying of it from the luncheon hall. To begin with, after turning down scores of other invitations, Mr. Hoover picked an assembly of newspaper editors for his first speech. In addition, a nationwide book-up has been arranged, and the newsreel companies have been asked to record the speech in talking pictures.

The president speaks at about 2 o'clock eastern standard time.

back the earth down. It also forces the earth worms to come to the surface, making openings through which the water seeps into the ground, and permits the air to enter.

Spring is well along, but just week was as cold as many during the winter. The average temperature being around 42 degrees. There were two mornings that the temperature stood below the freezing mark, and one that it was just two degrees above. Indications point to much warmer weather this week. If today may be taken as an indication.

Restaurants do more than feed the traveling public. One local restaurant has a regular customer in a little yellow dog. He has been getting his breakfast there every morning since early in the winter. One of the employees tossed some scraps to him one day, and each morning since then, he sits just outside the back door in the alley, patiently waiting for his share. As soon as he has been fed he trots away contentedly, not showing up again until the next morning.

Looks like real housecleaning weather this week, and more than one tired business man of New Castle is going to be detained unusually late at the office—Perhaps.

Pa Newg observes that the West Washington street railroad track bed over the street is being repaired. For the past some time, the crossing has been in a bad condition and the needed repair will come as a joy to motorists whose tires tread have become worn.

The Perry highway detour, ladies and gentlemen motorists, is 14 miles in length and over dirt and cinder track. Me thinks that the motorists will perchance come by way of this city.

This is the weeks that the city and a number of the county high school musical teams go to the sectional contest at Erie. A special train will make the trip up for the day, returning in the evening. Lawrence county will be well represented with four county high schools sending teams in addition to New Castle.

Just eight more days in the month of April.

If the weather such as greeted us upon rising this morning just holds out, we suspect that the hordes of summer campers will be getting their butts cleaned and moving out by the creek banks very shortly.

New Castle is getting a full page advertisement about itself in Pennsylvania Tour—which by the way, is quite a booklet. Pictures of industries and various other business establishments as well as beauty spots, will be included on this page.

Leslie Brindle, local sportsman, who was with a party of trout fishermen at the head of the creek in Clanton county Saturday, stated that they saw the carcasses of three deer which had starved to death during the winter. Bushes in the vicinity had been stripped bare of twigs and buds by the hungry deer, in their effort to secure sustenance.

Walking through the diamond this morning, Young Pa Newg's attention was called to the city flagpole that stands directly in the center. A man said: "There's a flagpole, but where's the flag?" We couldn't tell him. We are inclined to believe that the city should raise a flag there every morning, or on days like this at least.

Attendance at many of the churches Sunday morning was considerably swelled because of the rain. Usually such a condition tends to cut down the attendance, but a great many people started out for Sunday school earlier in the morning, expecting the day to be clear. By the time the Sunday school hour was over, the rain was coming down in torrents and many stayed to church, hoping it would subside.

A light frost was reported this morning in the rural districts, but was not heavy enough to cause any damage. Late risers were unaware of the fact, the sun having come out bright and warm.

women who were responsible for the service. He stated that he did not intend to preach a sermon, but that if he took a text at all it would be "Strength and Beauty Are in His Temple."

"The text is applicable to this service tonight," said Dr. Kerr. "The strength is represented by the Builders, and the beauty by the Rainbow Girls."

"The world can be divided into classes of people, those who build and those who destroy, those who construct and those who destroy."

"Life is regulated by certain laws. The way was when people lived in one story buildings, but the law of gravity and engineering has changed all that."

"These young men and women here tonight are on the threshold of a different world than were their fathers and grandfathers. Perhaps that is the reason why they are not understood as easily as their parents. As they enter the world they must learn the law of life, they must have an architect in order to have a perfect building."

Can't Build Without Architect

"They cannot build without an architect, and a plan of life. May I suggest the Beatitudes as a plan? To the girls may I suggest the history of Alice Freeman Palmer, once president of Wellesley College as an aid."

"Mrs. Palmer was once asked by a group of poor girls to tell them how to be happy. Her three rules were, memorize something beautiful every day, see something beautiful every day, do something beautiful every day."

The service was a rather lengthy one but of such interest that the time passed quickly. It was a remarkable service, one that will serve as an inspiration to the other joint services that are to come.

Washington Street Paving Bids Asked

Burns Says Paving Plans Were To Be Held Up On Account of Sewers

Council may and may not repair a portion of West Washington street this summer. It all depends on whether the majority of councilmen believe the money available to be spent on sewers on paving.

During councilmanic session Mr. Reeves introduced a motion directing the city clerk to ask for bids in two different ways, (a) paving from a point near Sankey street west to the switch and (b) from a point near Sankey street to the city line. The motion carried.

Tyler asked, that in view of the plans advocated, why the jobs should not be lumped in one advertisement and the contractors asked to submit bids. He said he believed the city would obtain better prices.

"We will not have the money for the proposed improvements," replied Councilman Davies.

"You let a contract today for building slopeways to the Boyles avenue bridge," replied Tyler.

"That was a preservation move," explained Davies relative to the project sponsored by Reeves.

"If though we met and agreed to build up paving plans to take care of the storm sewer situation," said Burns, "I'll vote for the motion to ask for bids but I will not commit myself to vote for it when the bids are opened."

The vote showed five ayes. Bids will be submitted and it will not be until that time that councilmen to pave or not to pave will be made.

JAPANESE FISHERMEN RETURN AFTER FUNERALS

TOKYO, April 22.—Twelve fishermen who set sail last December from Shikoku island returned home to find themselves officially dead. In the long interval their families had given them up as lost and funeral services had been held.

The Fuji Maru brought the men to their home port, having taken them off the tiny island in the Pacific 40 miles to the south of Hachisima, where they had been stranded for weeks after their fishing junk, the Sakigake Maru, was damaged and carried there by wind and current.

Hard times have their faults, but nobles takes you a lot, out to a cow pasture to sell you a lot.

SEVEN MOTIONS OF THE EARTH

The earth rotates upon its axis once every 24 hours; swings in majestic orbit around the sun at a mean radius of 93 million miles, with a velocity of 18 1/2 miles per second; gyrates like a top in a backward motion producing the procession of the equinoxes; experiences a third or lunar monthly motion, as the earth and moon rotate around a common center of gravity; wobbles at its geographic poles about 30 feet annually from irregular loads of forming and melting ice, modifying the planet's equilibrium; is flying with the entire Milky Way galaxy across infinite space. Yet life upon the earth is happy and endurable.

Cow, With Window, Tells Scientific Tale To Research

Famed Jessie With Window In Stomach Aids Discovery Of Bacteriologist

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., April 22.—Little things sometimes have big names. This fact stands out in the announcement of Professor M. H. Kautsky, bacteriologist of the Pennsylvania State College agricultural experiment station, that the bacteria found in the rumen of Penstate Homestead Jessie, the famous cow with the window in her stomach, have been called Flavobacterium vitrum.

These little organisms, so small that they must be sought with the aid of a microscope, were so numerous in Jessie's stomach that there were nine of them for every one of the many other kinds isolated. When the dried bacterial cells were fed in a prepared vitamin B-free ration to rats by Dr. Hannah E. Honeywell, she found that they grew just as well as those receiving vitamin B in their food.

The results of this experiment warrant the conclusion drawn by research workers here that vitamin B was produced in Jessie's stomach by bacterial fermentation. This result is considered a satisfactory explanation of why cattle, unlike any other species of animal yet studied by the scientists, have the ability to grow to maturity, to bear normal offspring, and to produce milk of normal dietary composition on a ration that carries an insignificant amount of vitamin B to support growth and well-being in experimental rats. These facts were determined by Dr. S. I. Bechdel, of the department of dairy husbandry here, and the final results answer all questions of scientists.

CLARK STAMPS RECEIVED HERE

Post Office Gets Shipment Of 5,000 Stamps Commemorating Historic Event

New Castle post office authorities announce the receipt of 5,000 George Rogers Clark commemorative stamps for immediate sale to patrons of the service here. The special two-cent postage commemorates the 150th anniversary of the surrender of Fort Sackville at Vincennes, Ind., to the man whose memory they honor.

George Rogers Clark was an American pioneer, born near Monticello, Va., on November 19, 1752. He studied surveying and settled in Ohio, serving in the Indian wars of that time and region. He removed to Kentucky in 1775, procuring the organization of that territory. On the outbreak of the Revolutionary war he led the patriot army on the frontier campaigns against the British throughout Illinois, Ohio and Kentucky. He succeeded in this saving much territory to the colonies in the final treaty of peace with Great Britain. However, Clark's life soon ended away and on February 18, 1818 he died in neglect near Louisville, Ky.

The stamp just issued is in commemoration of his heroic and noble feats. It is of the same shape as the five-cent air mail stamp and is printed in two colors. The border is in red while the vignette, the central design showing the surrender of Fort Sackville, is done in red.

Only a limited supply of this special issue could be obtained, post office officials say. Notice has been made to all postmasters that no more will be issued and that none can be obtained when the present supply is exhausted.

A "house of art" will be established in Monticello, Uruguay, in which symphony concerts, choruses, motion pictures, lectures, and expositions of art and industry will be held. Admission will be at popular prices, with free admission twice a week. Provision for establishment of the institution was made by decree in 1929.

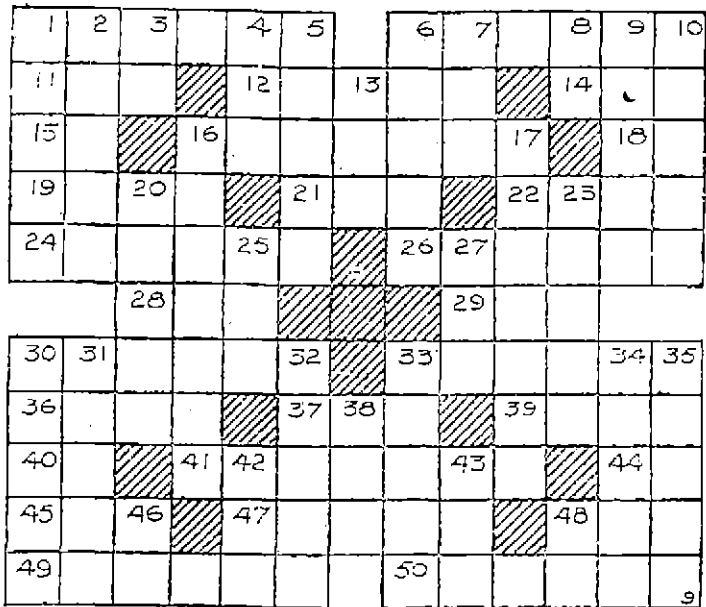

Doctor Found Women and Children Sick More Often than Men

As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice, he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with psyllium. In 1922 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and placed it on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a public success as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children, who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us it helped when everything else failed.

Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

THE TURKEY WHO TURNED TRAITOR

If Peter was surprised to find Gander at his side he was still more surprised at Gander's remark.

"What have you heard that you speak like that?" Peter demanded.

"I don't know anything, really," admitted Gander, "but I suspect something. The other morning with my very own eyes I saw Gobbler marching along with a crowd of Turkeys they went right by the barnyard fence."

"On their way to market?" chimed in one of the Geese with Gander.

"Of course! I thought that at once!" interrupted Gander. "When I was a gay young fellow I knew a 'leader'! Horrid he was too! Most deceitful chap! Why he would go from barnyard to barnyard making friends with all the Gobblers and then one fine morning when the frost was on the pumpkin he would invite them all to go for a walk and he would lead them up hill and down, wouldn't tell them where he was going but promised them all sorts of fine things when he got there. And where do you suppose he led them?"

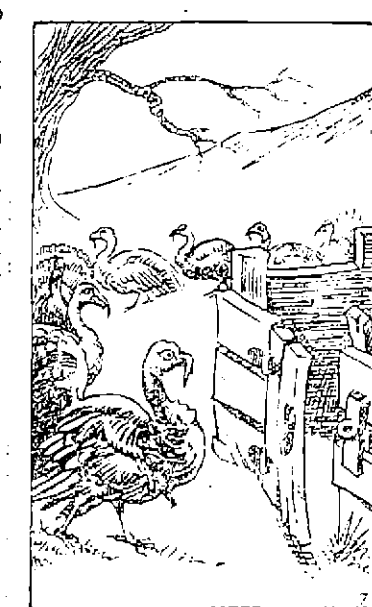

"Where?" cried Peter and the Wild Goose, both much excited.

"Straight to the block to have their heads chopped off!" declared Gander. "That leader was a traitor to his family. He was trained by the Two Legs to lead Turkeys to their death and he always did it too."

"You see being a Turkey himself his kind trusted him and followed willingly at his heels. And for their faith in him they lost their lives. Have heard it said"—here Gander stretched out his neck until his head almost touched the boy's ear and hissed—"I have heard it said that the Two Legs took these foolish Turkeys and after their heads were gone served them up for dinner."

Peter had been thinking deeply all the time that Gander had been talking and now he cried out suddenly: "And yesterday was Thanksgiving! Poor, poor old Gobbler! He really turned out to be a sad day for him just as he was always afraid it would be!"

"That's the last time I'll dance with you," he thought.

...yet to be polite he said, "Thanks for the dance."

Good looking... a good dancer but "B.O." killed her charm

THE girl of his dreams! So she seemed—at first glance.

She danced wonderfully, too. Yet before the music stopped, the dream had vanished.

"Thanks for the dance," he murmured politely. But how different his real thoughts! He didn't come near her again all evening.

A humiliating experience. But it could never happen to Betty today. For she finally discovered what was spoiling her attractiveness. "B.O."—Body Odor! And then she found an easy way to overcome this unpardonable fault.

Betty is now admired, sought after by everyone. Read her story that follows.

"B.O." certainly spoiled me for a long time.

"It was my doctor who told me that we're so rarely aware of our own body odor. The sense of smell becomes accustomed to a familiar odor. But even on cool days, the pores give off as much as a quart of odor causing waste, heat and...

"Now, on his advice, I use Lifebuoy all the time and never worry about 'B.O.' Lifebuoy's antiseptic lather purifies. You do feel cleaner, fresher after a Lifebuoy bath."

Fisher Refuses To Explain Why He Signed Bill

Governor Fisher Back In Harrisburg Evades Explanation Of Mans. field Signing

APPOINTMENT MADE OF NEW CAPTAIN

HARRISBURG, April 22.—Governor John S. Fisher, who refused to explain in any way his previous action in signing the bill for the appointment of a new captain of the state police, today evaded the question when he signed the bill.

The governor did not explain, however, the appointment of Captain George E. Lumb, former officer in the state police, to head a bureau in his own department which will have entire charge of the commissioning and jurisdiction of the new force.

No Limited Area
The Mansfield bill creating the new police and which does not contain any limit on the area in which they may operate was signed today.

Question on the matter of jurisdiction the governor said that so long as he had the power to revoke commissions on the recommendation of Captain Lumb it will be an easy matter to enforce any regulations believed necessary in administration of the industrial police.

The governor said he had selected Captain Lumb for the post because of his long training in the regular army and the state police force and also because he is a lawyer.

Lumb served for 12 years in the regular army. The period included service in the Spanish American war and the Boxer rebellion. He was one of the original enlistments when the state police force was created and rose to the rank of captain. During the absence in England of the then Superintendent, Colonel John C. Greene, Lumb acted as head of the force. He resigned to practice law.

Arrest Youth On Hold-up Charges

Allege He Demanded Money At Office Of Little $2 Hotel

As a result of the efforts of Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch, Frederick Newton, under parole from the state reformatory, is now in the county jail pending arrangements to take him back to the reformatory as a result of his alleged actions in the past few days.

According to the report made to the police Saturday by the lady clerk of the Little $2 Hotel on South Mill street, a man came into that place last on April 11 and again on Saturday and demanded all the money in the place.

On the first occasion the demand was made at the point of a gun, but on some other he talked him out of taking all the money and by giving him $20.

Saturday he returned and handed for a card on which he demanded $20. He was refused the money. She handed him out of the place. He immediately brought the card to the police.

The officer immediately sought Newton and found him in the gun shop at his home where it was found. It is likely that he will face several charges.

HOOVER OPPOSES DEBENTURE PLAN FOR FARM RELIEF

WASHINGTON, April 22.—President Hoover has virtually won his first brush with congress.

Face to face with the first real test of his leadership, Mr. Hoover has cracked the whip over Congress in the farm relief fight.

Abandoning his hitherto passive attitude, he informed Congress in positive terms that he was opposed to the debenture plan, which the McNary-Haugenites favored as a substitute for the equalization fee, and he indicated plainly that only a veto awaits any farm bill containing it.

The President's opposition, expressed in a letter to the Senate agriculture committee, sounds the death knell of the debenture plan, and by the same token definitely assures the passage of a farm relief bill for which he stands sponsor. Of that there can be no doubt.

House in Accord
The well-disciplined House already is behind him. It is only a minority of the recalcitrant Senate with which he has to deal.

And irrespective of whether the Senate agriculture committee does or does not vote to include the plan in the bill which it reports, the votes cannot be mustered to pass in either house. The committee vote may be close, either way, but it doesn't matter much.

Senator McNary, the chairman, who twice fathered bills which President Coolidge vetoed, expressed the general attitude of his colleagues when he said today that he will not favor the debenture plan now that the President has expressed opposition to it, but would vote for the plan he will approve.

There will be some fighting over it, or rather some shadow-boxing in the Senate. But it will be mainly for political purposes and to appraise the farm organizations that sponsored the debenture plan, rather than with any idea of victory. The President's letter to McNary killed all chance of victory for the debenture people. They know it, as well as anyone else.

Cites Ten Reasons
Mr. Hoover cited 10 reasons why he is opposed to the debenture plan, among them being that it would cost the treasury $300,000,000 a year, which would go mostly to speculators rather than to the farmers themselves; that it would stimulate overproduction and disturb the basis of crop diversification; that it would necessitate revision of import tariffs; that it would stimulate speculation and manipulation; and finally because it would confuse and minimize the more far-reaching plan for farm relief upon which there is now general agreement.

The backers of the debenture plan, however, manage to extract one bit of comfort out of the situation—they had forced Mr. Hoover to assume the responsibility for killing the plan and to accept corresponding responsibility for the bill that will be enacted.

Prohibition Not To Blame
Prohibition was mentioned merely as "one segment of our problem," except that Mr. Hoover denied vigorously that the Eighteenth Amendment had materially affected the increase in crime.

"In order to dispel certain illusions in the public mind on this subject," he asserted, "let me say at once that while violations of law have been increased by inclusion of crimes under the 18th amendment and by the vast sums that are poured into the hands of the criminal classes by the patronage of illicit liquor by otherwise responsible citizens, yet this is but one segment of our problem. I have purposely cited the extent of murder, burglary, robbery, forgery and embezzlement, for but a small percentage of these can be attributed to the 18th amendment. In fact, of the total number of convictions for felony last year less than eight per cent came from that source. If it were true that a sector of the invasion of lawlessness."

Can't Choose Laws to Obey
Indirectly, however, the executive came back to the prohibition problem when he asserted that "no individual has the right to determine what law shall be obeyed and what law shall not be enforced."

"Whatever the value of any law may be, the enforcement of that law written in plain terms upon our statute books is not, in my mind, a debatable question. Law should be obeyed, must be enforced until it is repealed by the proper process of our democracy. The duty to enforce the law rests upon every public official and the duty to obey it rests upon every citizen."

The revitalizing of the law-enforcement agencies, President Hoover said, should be undertaken through systematic constructive building. He condemned "dramatic displays and violent attacks in order to make headlines" and he attacked the practice of "violating the law itself through mis-citation of the law in its enforcement."

In coming to the press of the action for aid he had several specific suggestions. He asked the newspapers, of course, to unite in appealing to the finer sensibilities of the people, but he also had some ideas on the manner in which new stories should be played.

"I wonder sometimes," he declared, "if perhaps a little more support to our laws could not be given in a different way. If, instead of the clamor of romance and heroism, which our American imaginative minds too frequently throw around those who break the law, we should invest with a little romance and heroism those thousands of our officers who are endeavoring to enforce the law it would do much to decrease crime. Praise and respect for those who are presently enforcing the laws and daily condemnation of those who defy would help. Perhaps a little better proportioned balance of news concerning those criminals who are convicted and punished would serve to instill the fear of the law."

lawlessly killed every year in the United States. Little more than half as many arrests follow. Less than one-sixth of these slayers are convicted, and but a scandalously small percentage are adequately punished."

"At least fifty times as many robberies in proportion to population are committed in the United States as in Great Britain, and three times as many burglaries."

"Even in such premeditated crimes as embezzlement and forgery our record stands no comparison with stable nations."

Problems Before Nation
Mr. Hoover told the editors that two immediate problems confront the country in government—investigation of existing agencies of enforcement, and reorganization of the present system of enforcement so as to eliminate its many weaknesses.

Every student of vigorous reorganization," he said, knows "that its procedure unduly favors the criminal; that the methods of assembling our juries needs revision; that justice must be more swift and sure. In our desire to be merciful the pendulum has swung in favor of the prisoner, and far away from the protection of society. The sympathetic mind of the American people in its overconcern about those who are in difficulties has swung too far from the family of the murdered to the family of the murderer."

In connection with these needs, the President told of the fact-finding commission he is about to appoint, adding that "such a commission can perform the greatest of service to our generation."

Prohibition Not To Blame
Prohibition was mentioned merely as "one segment of our problem," except that Mr. Hoover denied vigorously that the Eighteenth Amendment had materially affected the increase in crime.

"In order to dispel certain illusions in the public mind on this subject," he asserted, "let me say at once that while violations of law have been increased by inclusion of crimes under the 18th amendment and by the vast sums that are poured into the hands of the criminal classes by the patronage of illicit liquor by otherwise responsible citizens, yet this is but one segment of our problem. Slippery Rock Post To Hold Anniversary Banquet On Night Of May 17th

Word was received from the committee in charge of the 13th anniversary banquet of the Slippery Rock Legion Post, stating that the date of the banquet had been advanced from May 18 to May 17.

It had originally been planned to send a big delegation to the banquet from the Perry S. Gaston Post here, but in view of the fact that the change in date brings it on the meeting night of the post, few from here will be able to attend.

The first meeting of the post during the month has been cancelled because of the celebration at Ellwood City, and it would be impossible to postpone the only other meeting arranged during the month.

Bishop Confirms Class On Sunday

Congregation Which Fills Trinity Episcopal Church, Witnesses Confirmation

For the second time in a few weeks, the Rt. Rev. John C. Ward, bishop of the Diocese of Erie, last evening confirmed a large class of new members in Trinity Episcopal church and in the presence of a congregation that filled the church almost to the point of overflowing. Rev. P. C. Pearson, rector of Trinity church and Rev. G. L. Grambs, pastor of St. Andrews church, took part in the service with the bishop, the former presenting the class for confirmation. The bishop was the preacher for the service and previous to delivering the sermon, congratulated Trinity parish and the rector on an accomplishment that had never occurred before in the diocese, namely the confirmation of a second class in the same year. The bishop had as his text twenty-third verse of the sixteenth chapter of the Gospel According to St. John, which reads "And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you." His remarks were to the effect that the real happiness of life is derived more from what we may do for others, than from what we may possess in earthly goods.

Parents Understood This Baby's Language

"We thought we were going to lose our baby," says a Haverly mother. "He couldn't digest anything and was getting thinner every day. After one of his terrible, crying nights, I thought of Castoria and got some. A few drops made him comfortable, and after a few doses, he seemed like a different baby." Doctors everywhere recommend pure vegetable, harmless Fletcher's Castoria for colic, constipation, and other ills of babies and children, and millions of mothers know its gentle influence is best. Avoid imitations. The Fletcher signature is the mark of genuine Castoria.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations
Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Church attendance in New Castle must have shown a rise Sunday night. With the regular church services going on, the service in the Cathedral drew a crowd of about 2000 and it's a good guess that Dr. Hugh Thompson Kerr has had few audiences to beat the one that faced him last night. While no doubt every one present wanted to see the Builder and Rainbow service, it is still a good guess that many of them were interested in seeing the chap who has preached sermons in their living rooms in the past couple of years. Dr. Kerr has broadcast many radio sermons and after hearing a man speak for a while one wants to see him. Just another reminder. Take time out Tuesday evening to drop around to the Senior High School auditorium. The Band, the Orchestra and the Chorus of the school will present the numbers in which they will compete in Erie. The admission is a two bite note, a quarter if you'll pardon me, and the quarter not only gets you a real concert, but helps to defray expense of the outfit to Erie to the climatic.

There's a growing plant in the office here that intrigues me. A mass of sprouting green shoots that sprout from the desk in disarray, with one long tendril curling around in a huge circle with the end toward the window. It's a sweet potato that someone stuck in a drinking glass, and just to prove it's gratitude for the drink of water the sweet spud is sending out green envoys in every direction.

If the county commissioners are looking for suggestions there is one that has been mulling around for a while that might as well be used. Down on the viaduct there is a patch of wood block that has been kicked loose, leaving a nasty hole. Cars going over it take a bad bump and thus far the cuss words engendered by the hole will fill a book, name your own size. It really should be fixed and the commissioners no doubt are going to fix it. As the ad says "eventually, why not now?"

The commissioners can be forgiven for overlooking a few things lately, however, for their minds have been full of road program. After laying out the program recently announced, any one is entitled to sit back and smoke a cigar before taking on anything else. But honestly Tom, and Phil, and Cal, that hole is a nuisance. This column seems to be a mile long today, or else material for it is slow in coming. This is the first Monday in several months the conductor has been in the office and perhaps that may account for it. Anyway it seems longer than a day in jail, which is the epitome of long days.

Aid in conclusion, remember that daylight savings is just around the corner. Business then of getting up with the sun and going to bed with the chickens.

HUSBAND DIES THEN HOME IS BURNED

ALBUQUERQUE, Pa., April 22.—The home of Mrs. Martin Winkle in Center township was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss estimated at $8,000. The woman's husband died Wednesday. Cause of the fire has not been determined. There was no one in the house at the time. Neighbors organized a bucket brigade and assisted in saving the barn and chickenhouse.

FINDS MAIN ST.
HAS ITS CULTURE

Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick Insists Babbitts And 'Hicks' Are In Big Cities

WASHINGTON, April 22.—American culture finds its inspiration as well as its development on Main street, not in New York, Chicago or San Francisco.

This is the contention of Representative Ruth Hanna McCormick, a resident of Byron, Ill., with a population of about 800.

Mrs. McCormick declares that Babbitts are bred in the large cities and repudiates the accusation that small towns have no artistic impetus.

More sculptors, more actors, more singers and more artists have been developed in the small communities of the country than in all the big cities combined, she asserts.

No greater artists can be found than the inhabitants of large American cities who boast of their insularity and in some cases admit they have never been outside their home sphere.

Gone is the day, Mrs. McCormick says, "when the concert company or road show, no matter how low brow, its program could invade and capture the small town. People resent poor caliber programs and immediately ask, 'What is New York trying to put over on us anyway?'"

Arranges Art Exhibits.

In order to meet with the growing demand for artistic expression from the smaller towns of the United States, Mrs. McCormick has organized the Allied Arts Extension which will arrange for ambulatory exhibits of fine arts, handicraft and other exhibitions in the more remote districts of the country.

Another indication of the growing spirit of aestheticism in the United States is color in daily life.

"We now use color in connection with articles which we never thought of coloring a few years ago—alarm clocks, tooth brushes, table glassware, underwear, linen and bath towels," she said. "It is no longer unusual to enter a kitchen where the floor is painted a bright blue or green and the handles of all the kitchen utensils are selected to match while even the dish pan, the stewing kettles and the poultry utensils, on the outside at least, are colored."

The general committee which is sponsoring the Allied Arts Extension includes Otto Kahn, John A. Ryan, Margaret Anglin, Edward A. Bok, Maurice C. Fox, Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, Henry Morgenthau, Charles M. Schwab, Ida M. Tarbell, Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, E. A. Van Valkenburgh, Senator Simeon D. Pess and others.

Daylight Savings
To Start In New York

NEW YORK, April 22.—Daylight saving, which recently became such a matter of controversy that a bill to abolish it was recently introduced—and defeated—in the New York Legislature, will go into effect a week from yesterday.

At 2 a. m. Sunday, April 28, clocks in New York City and in some 300 other communities in New York and New Jersey will be set ahead one hour. This will give one hour's additional daylight in the evening until Sept. 29, when the clocks will be set back one hour.

♦ ♦ A NEW ♦ ♦ BAKING DISCOVERY

*Called great forward step in history of baking
... . acclaimed by foremost food authorities*

TODAY these research bakers become nationally famous with the announcement of a new baking discovery that does away with the chemical bleaching of flour.

Louis W. Haas is a graduate and former instructor of Heidelberg University, Germany, home of famous scientists. He is regarded as one of the leading bakery scientists in the country today.

Ralph M. Bohn, the associate of Mr. Haas, worked with him for years in the development of a baking method to do away with bleaching. Mr. Bohn is a graduate of Wisconsin University where the now famous Steenbock discovery originated.

These research bakers tested more than a thousand samples of flour each month in their experimental work. They bring you today a new goodness in Wheat King bread.

TODAY for the first time a new baking method gives you and your family white bread made with natural flour unbleached by chemicals.

This is the result of a far reaching discovery that means much to you. You now have the final assurance that Wheat King bread is not only the very best of bread but the most worthy of all good foods.

For years Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, father of the pure food laws, and Dr. Royal S. Copeland, national food authority, have pointed out that bread made with bleached flour is not as good as bread made with flour unchanged by artificial treatment. Up to date you and your baker have had to use bleached flour.

Today famous research bakers have done away with the only objection to white bread. The good news of this discovery is acclaimed all over America, by bakers, by food authorities, by dietitians.

Today your Wheat King bread is made for you by this notable new method. We are indeed proud to be the first to bring you its many benefits. As you slice Wheat King today note the finer fluffy-white texture like angel food.

You will find the crust thin and tender with a taste nut-sweet. You will enjoy the richer delicate flavor of Wheat King. It is the taste of natural wheat hearts unchanged by bleaching.

When you have a bit of Wheat King left it will keep its freshness much longer than other bread because of this new baking method.

From day to day you will find Wheat King excellence the same... unvarying because this new method removes many baking hazards.

Today as you watch Wheat King disappear behind smiles of delight you can be sure your family is enjoying the most worthy of all good food.

With all these advantages Wheat King costs you no more than ordinary bread made with bleached flour.

By all means serve Wheat King bread today. Your nearest grocer has Wheat King for you right now, fresh baked.

THE WHEAT KING BAKERS

A GREAT MAN

Brings you his message

Dr. H. E. Barnard is particularly well qualified to determine the value of this new discovery both to your baker and your family. He is past president of the American Institute of Baking, former health commissioner of Indiana and now president of the Honey Institute of America. He says of this new baking method:

"I consider this new method a great forward step in the history of baking. The natural flavor of this new bread like the natural tang of honey should inspire people to enjoy more of the food that is best for them because it tastes so good."

Let this recommendation guide you today to a new goodness in bread—the goodness of natural flour.

A Word About Bleaching

Look at the flour sack in your kitchen. According to government requirements it must be marked "bleached" if chemically whitened.

Today the use of chemically bleached flour is done away with in making Wheat King Bread because of the discovery of a new baking method. Thus Wheat King is a snow-white loaf of velvety texture made from the full flavored unbleached flour.

MOTHERS, today foremost authorities bring you word of the goodness of Wheat King bread... the most valued food for your children

Today Wheat King offers more than half of the food a child needs for healthy, happy growth... the essential food minerals for sturdy bones and sound, hard teeth... and the vital proteins unchanged by bleaching.

Serve your children at least six slices each day of Wheat King, the most valued of all good food. This is the advice of dietitians, doctors, food authorities.

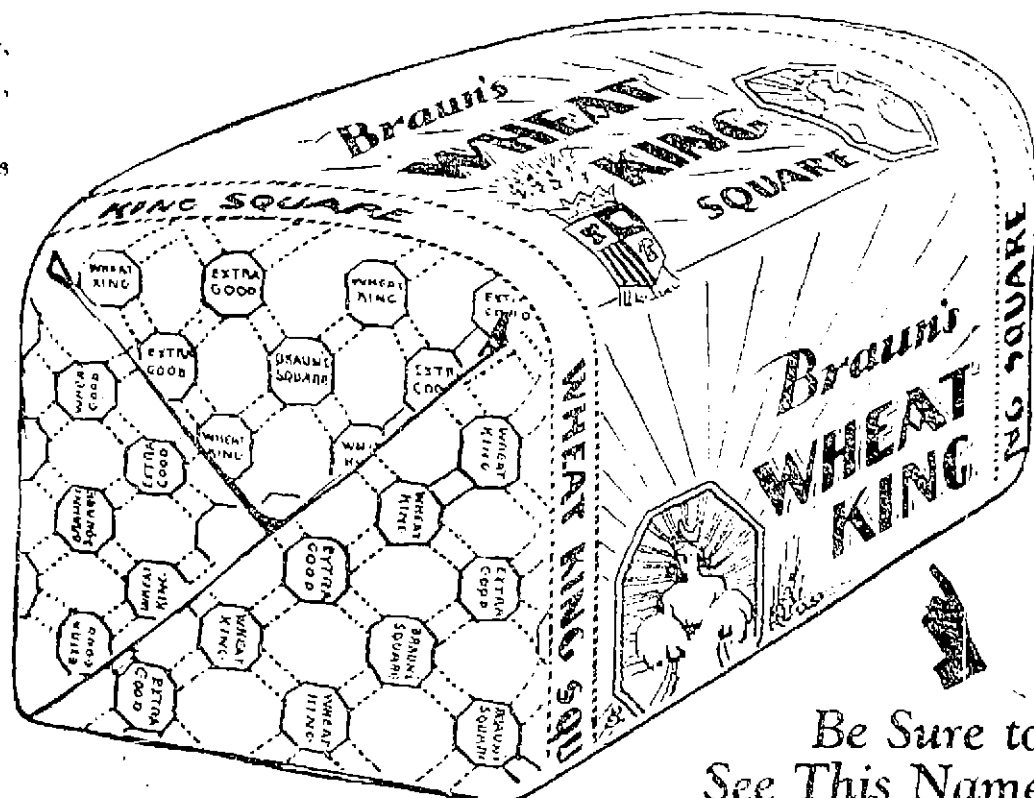

Find, too, in Wheat King a new economy — for Wheat King gives more nourishment for your money than any other food.

Oil Conservation Is Big Necessity

Henry O. Doherty, Wealthy Oil Magnate, Says Conservation Is Big Issue Today

In Case Of National Emergency Oil Shortage Would Save Serious Effect

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service
Correspondent

Copyright, 1929, International News Service
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 22.— America through wasteful methods is facing a shortage of oil that might affect the country seriously in the event of a national emergency.

This is the opinion of Henry O. Doherty, internationally known oil and public utilities magnate, as expressed today in an exclusive interview. Mr. Doherty is one of the wealthiest men in the country, his riches being variously estimated from $25,000,000 to $200,000,000.

Doherty is recognized in the oil industry as a "fighter"—a crusader for the conservation of the nation's oil resources. And until recent secret marriage he was known as "America's richest bachelor."

Oil Is Necessary
"Oil is a vital necessity in the event of a war," declared Doherty. "It is the biggest necessity. Every government in the civilized world realizes this and that is why they manifest the keenest interest in the development and conservation of their oil resources."

"The American government should assume the right to legislate on oil production. I disagree that it is strictly a state matter. It is a national matter, and one of supreme importance."

"I believe the conservation of our domestic oil supply is one of the burning problems before the country. Our oil is now being wasted at a shocking rate. We, the American people, are taking more oil out of the ground and burning it up in some form or other every year than the state of Pennsylvania has produced since oil was discovered in that state in 1859."

Doherty, who has been ill for two years with arthritis, will soon be back in New York in active charge of his companies, the Cities Service company and Henry O. Doherty and company, of which he is the head. His public utilities companies furnish power to three hundred cities and villages in the United States and Canada.

Oil Control Fight

Since Wall Street's prediction that Harry P. Sinclair, top, chairman of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil company, would shortly be removed from that office, rumors have been current that Col. Robert W. Stewart, below, recently ousted as chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, will replace him. Sinclair, whose three-month sentence for contempt of court, has been upheld, is said to have lost control of the company.

Patrolman Munsey Captures Alleged Murderers At Erie

Former Local Patrolman, Harold N. Munsey, One Of Men Who Got Murder Suspects

Harold N. Munsey, former state highway patrolman, stationed here and recently transferred to Erie, Pa., was one of the two patrolmen who captured the alleged murderers of Patrolman R. T. Swanson, 24, at that city Friday.

Munsey, with Patrolman Jones of the Erie force, were hot in pursuit of the auto thieves who had been captured by Swanson, and who later shot him down.

The two patrolmen came upon the suspects suddenly and closed in on the men, stripping them of their weapons, before they had time to fire.

Munsey was stationed here until a few months ago at which time he was transferred to the Erie district.

New Cucumber Is Raised In Colorado

Disciple Of Burbank Perfects New Variety Of Table Vegetable

DENVER, April 22.—A new vegetable, of the cucumber species, has been originated by M. G. Van Sickle, a Denver horticulturist, and is being sold in eastern markets in large quantities. It is revealed here recently.

The Colo-cuke, as the vegetable is called, is the product of years of work crossing and re-crossing different pollen of several common garden plants. Van Sickle is guarding the secret of its germination very closely, and as it is cut from the vine and sold in an immature or green state, the seeds cannot be obtained in this manner.

The name Colo-cuke, comes from the word Colorado and cucumber. The leaves on the plant are large and vilt, and they obtain more food value from the thin Colorado air than the roots of the plant gain from the ground.

The plant, which resembles a vine, is supported by a slanting trellis nearly eight feet high. The fruit hangs from the lower side of the lattice work, where it is easily cared for and cut.

Plants begin to produce about four months after the seeds are planted and continue to produce hundreds of Colo-cukes.

Van Sickle was a disciple of Luther Burbank, noted horticulturist. In the greenhouses where the new plant is grown are several hives of bees. The bees, Van Sickle explained, are quite necessary to the growth of the plant as they transfer pollen from blossoms of one sex to the other. The Colo-cuke produces a male and female embryo.

Feeding Of Ewes Aid To Lamb Crop Says County Agent

Ewes Should Receive Plenty Of Protein Foods Says H. R. McCulloch

Ewes that are suckling lambs or soon will be should receive a good nourishing ration containing plenty of protein, says County Agent Harold McCulloch. Good, fresh corn silage fed in a combination with clover hay makes a good roughage feed.

With a roughage of this kind, each ewe should get each day one pound of a grain mixture made up of 300 pounds of oats, 100 pounds of shelled corn, 75 pounds of bran, and 50 pounds of oil meal, says McCulloch. Amount to be fed depends on the size of the ewes.

For the lambs, the county agent avers that they should be fed grain as soon as they will eat it, or when they are about two weeks of age. He recommends a ration composed of 300 pounds of cracked corn, 200 pounds of oats, and 50 pounds of oat meal.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

The General Electric Refrigerator is so simple that it hasn't a single exposed moving part. It hasn't a belt or a fan or a drain pipe. It has no connections or stuffing boxes. It never needs oiling because the hermetically sealed casing which holds all the mechanism also holds a permanent supply of oil.

A specially designed motor of low horse-power, but high efficiency, uses very little current. Then, too, the top unit design allows all the heat (extracted from the box and generated by the tiny motor) to be dissipated above the box—not to rise through it.

Standards of quietness, vary so widely that we can only invite you to listen to the refrigerators yourself to find how quietly they operate.

The remarkable compactness of the chilling chamber gives each model a greater shelf area than any other refrigerator of the same over-all size. All the models are set up on legs.

Indian Life In Allegheny County Proves Failure

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 22.—Indian life in Allegheny county is a failure. No longer will the stately red man inhabit the parks of the county as an added attraction for sightseers and the education of the local citizens. Homesickness has caused an exodus back to the wide open spaces where women are squaws and men are braves.

When the county parks were opened to the public more than a year ago it was thought that Indian caretakers would bring more visitors and add that romantic touch so necessary to the successful park.

Accordingly County Commissioner E. V. Babcock had a number of braves and their families transported from the Montana reservations to residences in the various parks. As went well until the red men pined for the plains, the hills and their tepees.

One by one the Indians served notice on the county commissioners that life was too humdrum as caretakers of parks. One by one the families were sent back to their Montana allies. The latest family to make the return trip was Peter Red Horn, his wife, Weasel Short Face Red Horn, and the four little Red Horns. Now only one Indian family remains in the county, and reports are that this brave, his squaw and a couple of paposes will leave when his contract expires this fall.

American Civil Liberties
Union Will Fight Mans-

Test Case

MEETING CALLED FOR TONIGHT

PITTSBURGH, April 22.—The executive committee of the American Civil Liberties Association will meet here tonight to discuss plans upon which it intends to carry through the courts a test case to determine the constitutionality of the existing coal and iron police law and the new Mansfield law which Governor John S. Fisher signed today.

The Mansfield law will not be effective until October, and by that time the Civil Liberties Union hopes to have completed with the test case.

A pledge of cooperation from the national organization was received today by the local branch, according to Sidney A. Teller, chairman of the executive committee of the Union, who called the session for tonight.

Arrest Five In Apartment Rooms

Four Men And One Woman Arrested On South Mill Street

Lieutenant of Police Hillers and Officer Kennedy and Thompson about 1:45 o'clock Sunday morning, made an arrest in a South Mill street building.

As a result of investigation, the officers went to the place armed with a search warrant and when some men went to leave the place, stepped in and arrested the alleged proprietor, Robert Shaffer, his woman companion, Lillie White, said to have rented the apartment as the wife of Shaffer, and three male visitors, one of whom, Nils Napten, is alleged to have been bringing customers to the place.

Shaffer was taken before Alderman O. H. P. Green, where he was charged with transporting liquor, to which charge he entered a plea of guilty and in default of bail was sent to the county jail.

The woman in the case was fined $50 as an inmate of a disorderly house and being unable to pay, was sent to the county jail for 30 days. Nils Napten was fined $10 and other two visitors $5 each.

One reason why the driver escapes unhurt is because he is high enough to slide under the steering wheel.

Reports Phoney Bill Is Passed

Bank Says $20 Bill Passed On Local Store Is Not Genuine

Phoney twenty dollar bills are now circulating in the city, or at least, one was past over the week-end, which would indicate the possibility, the police say, of attempts to pass others.

The bill passed is a fairly good copy of a twenty dollar gold certificate, the only thing lacking, apparently, when closely examined being the silk threads that are visible in the regular bill.

The bill was received Saturday night, according to the police, by Carl Barth of 1104 Wilmington avenue, from a man who purchased a pound of ham in Mr. Barth's store, 713 West Grant street.

It took all of Mr. Barth's change to give the man back the money coming to him after the purchase.

This morning Mr. Barth presented the bill in payment of a purchase in a downtown store and that store sent it to the bank for change. It was the bank that discovered it to be a counterfeit.

The matter was reported to the police and Mr. Barth went to the police station with Detective John Young, where he made a report.

The man passing the bill on him was forty to forty-five years of age, heavy set, smooth faced, five foot, seven inches tall, weighing about 155 pounds and wearing a gray suit.

RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN ARDOR

NEW YORK, April 22.—President Herbert Hoover, accompanied by Mrs. Hoover, arrived in New York today for the first time since his election to the presidency.

The chief executive, who is here to deliver a brief address at the annual luncheon of the Associated Press at the Waldorf-Astoria arrived in the Pennsylvania station from Washington promptly at 12:45 p. m.

Despite the rain, Mr. Hoover was dressed in formal attire, with a high silk hat and frock coat. Mrs. Hoover wore a maroon cloth coat with fur trimmed collar and a small black silk hat.

After a brief exchange of greetings, the welcoming committee members led the Hoovers through the station to waiting limousines, which whisked them to the Waldorf.

Speakin' of environment an' its relation to crime, Constable Newt Plum has recently completed an investigation of the homes of seventeen boy bandits an' reports that he found everything modern an' up-to-date. Planners an' radios adorned every home. He found no evidence of brewin' an' what literature he found bound about with the sort now found in all homes. What fathers he met all seemed to be industrious an' sober, an' in two of the homes he found mothers who appeared to be of fair quality. In the home of Wesley Purviance, eighteen, who recently shot four fillin' station keepers in one night, he found three Bibles an' an uncompleted water color picture entitled "The Breath of Spring." Wesley is quite an artist, as his cell walls testify. Wesley's mother still bakes bread an' the home shows many evidences of gentle blood. While Wesley's father has never been active in Scout work, he's regularly employed, an' stands well with his grocer. I've never thought so much of environment, Mrs. Tilford Moots' uncle, well-to-do an' highly respected an' seventy-four, raised himself. His

DIES AT COUNTY HOME; HAS $1,000 IN BANK

A rather unusual circumstance was developed in the past few days by the county authorities in investigating the death and family of Joseph R. Palmer, who died a few days ago in the county home.

It developed that Mr. Palmer had told some inmate of the home during his stay there that he had money in a local bank but did not know where, as he had forgotten, also lost his bank book.

This led to an investigation and on

DR. J. A. KING SPEAKS TODAY TO ROTARIANS

Ellwood Minister Makes Address
At Session At The Castleton

"The Fourth Dimension—The Height of a Man" was the subject of Dr. J. A. King, pastor of the Bell Memorial church of Ellwood City, when he spoke at noon today before the New Castle Rotary club.

Dr. King cited each dimension in relation to human life. "The first dimension, or the length of a man," The Ellwood pastor said—"is the length of years he lives; the second, the breadth of man, or in what manner he understands his fellow men; the third, the depth of the man, or the degree of his sincerity, his firmness."

After illustrating each of the first three he approached the fourth, the height. "By this we mean a man's spirit of cooperation with others," Dr. King went on. "His ability to help others of his fellow men. 'Rotary, Kiwanis, Lionism and all the others are strong illustrations of this. When a business man meets and deals with another business man, to work out something beneficial for both, that man has height."

Previous to Dr. King's address William Nunn, on behalf of the New Castle Booster club, presented statistics showing the standing of the bread industry in New Castle. Mr. Nunn urged all to buy New Castle made bread in preference to any that is brought in from out of town.

Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole

"A woman can have a home without a husband," said Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, Brockton, Mass., first vice president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs, in a talk before a group of college girls recently. "If you live alone," Mrs. Poole told the girls, "there is no reason why you should be depressed and inactive." She closed her talk by pleading that homes be well built, for life is the material from which they are built.

Read What Erskine Owners Say!

I defy any car, regardless of price, to stand the pounding which our Erskine receives, as we drive between 40 and 50 miles per hour most of the time. Have never gotten less than 20 miles to the gallon of gas.

W. H. C.—Riverside, Calif.

I drove my Erskine Coupe over the roughest part of this state for 1525 miles at a total operating expense of $15.80, averaging 28 1/2 miles to the gallon of gas. At times I was confronted with 5 and 10% hills that stretched 4 to 23 miles. She is still hitting on all six and is ever ready to go.

A. W. W.—Nogales, Ariz.

Think it is the greatest little car on the road. Have never been in second since I had it and we have some mountains and hills out here too.

F. D. T.—Northboro, Mass.

Erskine Owners Sing Praises

We have driven our Erskine 24,976 miles and the best part about it, we have never had one bit of work done on it, not even clean the carbon, grind valves, not even set the valves. All we ever did to it was drive it past 60 miles per hour.

C. J. R.—Clearfield, Penna.

I consider it the most beautiful car in any price class as well as the greatest value.

P. R. K.—Oceanside, L. I., N. Y.

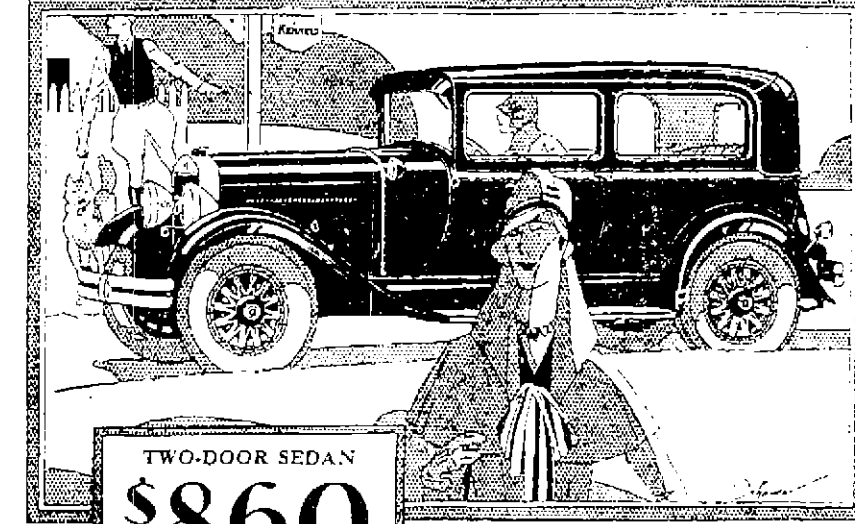

We are delighted with our Erskine in both performance and in the looks. It is unsurpassed in the light car field.

C. H. A.—Milford, Del.

Owners Everywhere—Satisfied

We consider the Erskine better value for the price than anything we have ever seen. It climbs hills on high and generally passes a lot of large cars going up—it just meets every demand.

America In The 20th Century Events Of Taft's Administration

IN 1911 PRESIDENT TAFT SOUGHT TO NEGOTIATE A RECIPROCITY TREATY WITH CANADA. HE PROPOSED THAT DUTIES ON CANADIAN PRODUCTS BE LOWERED OR REMOVED, WITH THE EXPECTATION THAT CANADA WOULD MAKE SIMILAR CONCESSIONS ON AMERICAN GOODS. AFTER MUCH OPPOSITION THE RECIPROCITY TREATY WAS APPROVED BY CONGRESS, ONLY TO BE REJECTED BY CANADA.

2 DURING HIS ADMINISTRATION PRESIDENT TAFT, WITH ATTORNEY-GENERAL WICKERSHAM, CARRIED ON A VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN AGAINST BIG BUSINESS COMBINATIONS THAT WERE VIOLATING THE SHERMAN ANTI-TRUST LAW OF 1890. SUITS WERE BEGUN AGAINST MANY LARGE COMPANIES CHARGED WITH ACTS IN RESTRAINT OF TRADE.

 IN 1910 THE THIRTEENTH CENSUS SHOWED THAT THE POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES ON THE CONTINENT HAD GROWN TO NEARLY 92 MILLIONS, INCLUDING THE POPULATION OF OUR ISLAND POSSESSIONS, 103,992,757 PEOPLE WERE LIVING UNDER THE AMERICAN FLAG.

Slippery Rock Teachers Games Start Saturday

St. Vincent's College Will Be Opening Attraction Of Baseball Season

SLIPPERY ROCK, April 22.—St. Vincent's college, which is the oldest baseball team in the state, will open its season on Saturday, April 27, at Slippery Rock in playing off the first of the 1929 baseball season.

The last two seasons, on the team continued with steady success and in the first of the class A league, some of the players are putting forth a lot of effort to win the title. Coach Thompson said that the personnel of his opening lineup had been in a quandary and that it would be unlikely that he would decide upon anything definite until the date of the game.

Two and "Neome" Campbell seem to be favorites at third base and short stop respectively, with the remainder of the infield still very much in doubt.

Defender and Melman are battling for second base while Overland, Mills, and Hoover are putting on a neat struggle for the initial spot, with the odds in favor of the President's namesake.

Gumbert, veteran catcher, seems to have his job secured, and Hall likely will be his understudy.

The outer garden jobs are the hardest to be filled, and Coach is putting a lot of time on the outfield candidates in an effort to strengthen this department, the weakest in last year's team. On has been transferred from second base to left field and looks like a coming star. If McLaughlin can overcome his early batting slump, he looks like the middle gardener. He is the fastest man on the squad and a brilliant fielder.

Butt and Nash are putting on a scrap of their own over in right, and it looks like a dead heat, so the situation will have to be solved by having these two evenly matched boys play in shifts. Early has been in the throes of a batting slump so far, but he is expected to overcome this as soon as the weather gets warmer, and then somebody will have to go some stepping to keep this boy from breaking.

Harry Morgan has been bothered with bad eyes this year, and should his condition improve, he will surely see plenty of action.

The pitching situation isn't likely to alarm "Coach", in fact he is well pleased with his corps of hurlers. Harry Houtz and Wallace Rankin, both veterans, will bear the brunt of the pitching burden with Renick and McCullough. Renick looks good enough for regular work this year. Spohn, Catano, and Mackinham, rookie pitchers, will likely see plenty of action later on in the season.

The tentative baseball schedule is: April 17, St. Vincent—Home; May 1, Indiana—Home; May 2 and 3, Pending; May 4, Ashland—Away; May 7, California—Away; May 8, Bethany—Pending; May 11, Ashland—Home; May 14, California—Home; May 18—St. Vincent—Away; May 22, Alumni—Home.

Westminster Track Squad Developing; First Meet May 4

(Special To The News.) NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 22.—Three outdoor practice sessions for the Westminster college track team last week helped materially in getting the United Presbyterian seminary squad into shape for the opening of the season here May 4 at Grove City in a dual contest.

Thursday and Friday afternoons were ideal, with the exception of the wind, and formed 50 candidates on the football field. Practice starts for sprinters and middle distance runners, made practice, high jumping, weight throwing and distance running events were all run off.

Sprinters Look Good. The sprinters were given two 50-yard sprints on Friday with Hemen, Reiber, Campbell, Peresenti and Stewart all negotiating the distance in less than six seconds. Paul Stewart, Sprinter, was spiked in a quarter mile trial Friday but will be in shape again by the middle of the week. He was not in uniform Saturday.

Saturday's workout, following the morning rains, was not so strenuous as the Friday practice, but opportunity was given to stress starting form for sprinters. The distance men, most of whom were members of the conference championship cross country team, ran to the manse on the New Shauker Falls road in order that leg muscles would get accustomed to distance.

James Graham, Sharon, and Marvin Clark, Knox, have been showing the best form in the high jump. Although these men have not jumped into the regular pit as yet, they have attained a height of five feet four inches. Brownlee, Delahanty and Peresenti look best for the high hurdles and Grubbs, Sam, Peresenti and Delahanty in the low hurdles.

Weight Men Improve. Harry Brownlee and Louis Peresenti, together with Russell Boone, will handle the hammer throw event this year. Boone has been handicapped with a sore shoulder from football, but will get into action this week. Brownlee and Peresenti have been throwing the 16-pound hammer 120 feet consistently in early practice and should be good for eight or ten feet more.

In the shot put and discus, a large group of likely looking candidates are available. The best of the group are Richard Fuller, Charles Fulton, Norman Holmquist, Harry Baird, Harold Forsha, William Frack, Harry Brownlee, Samuel Stewart and Louis Peresenti. The discus men have been getting 110 feet consistently, while the shot putters have as their best early season mark 38 feet.

Many Relay Men. William Crowell, Louis Peresenti, Chester Campbell, Harry Brownlee, Elmer Reiber and Deane Osborne look best for the 440-yard dash. In all probability, the one-mile relay team will be selected from this group. For the 100 and 220, Deane Osborne, Elmer Reiber, Chester Campbell, Kenneth Hemen and Paul Stewart look best.

Wilson Bosford, James Smalley, Ross Ellis and William Brownlee will be groomed for the half mile. In the mile, James Smalley, Byers King, Andrew Perrine and David Hunter will be used. Charles Campbell, Robert Wallace, David Myers and Richard Rhones will try for places.

Week's Schedule. This week's schedule calls for the inter-class relay Thursday and the inter-class track meet Saturday, weather permitting. All varsity men will be eligible to compete, opportunity being given in this manner to get a line on the ability of the candidates.

Some work was done on the upper held Friday by a group of freshmen and the assistant managers. If weather permits, freshmen will be called out again this week to get the track in shape for actual competition.

One week from Saturday the blue and white team will face Grove City here in the opening meet of the season. The Groves will have had the experience of one meet to help them, for they are slated to meet Carnegie Tech on Saturday of this week. Last year Westminster defeated the Groves at Grove City by a six-point margin.

Smith's Punch Has Floored Many Foes
Thrilling Battle Expected When Martin Steps Into Ring
BOBBY BELFORD TO BOX K. O. JENNINGS

To Steve Smith commonly known as the Bridgeport Bomber, comes the distinct individual credit of causing many ring thrills and when he battles Andy Martin of Boston here Wednesday night the fans will see a fighter who doesn't know what "back up" means. Smith is one of the most talked of boxers and since Martin defeated Shea it is termed a "natural match" by the fight writers.

Reasons why Smith is going so big in the fight will follow. He knocked out Doc Seel. He was the first to turn the trick. Floored and almost knocked out Eddie Anderson before 18,000 fans at Madison Square Garden.

Fought Honeyboy Dinegan twice and floored him in both bouts. Smith fought and gained the popular newspaper decision over Benny Bass in Cleveland before Bass won the title. Smith had Bass on the floor twice in the bout in Cleveland. Forced the fighting against Harry Blitman and none of Harry's punches showed any effect on the iron jaw of the Polish boy. Blitman had a seven pound weight advantage when they boxed at Philadelphia.

Knocked out Spanish Frankie Garcia in two rounds at Wilkes-Barre. He is coming to the Jolly bowl to box Andy Martin who has only lost one decision in three years. Martin demonstrated his class at Boston when he defeated Eddie Shea of Chicago. He had Shea bleeding from the second until the last round and took eight of the 10 sessions.

Everybody likes Martin. Martin has the endorsement of all the writers and fans who have seen him fight and a Smith will come up and punch with Martin it looks like a "natural" when the bell rings Wednesday night.

Smith and Martin will arrive here Tuesday night. Smith has trained in bridgeport and Martin, following his bout with Shea, has been doing enough work to keep his muscles pliable.

Tony Okeh at Last?

Fourth straight pennant hopes of the New York Yankees depend largely on whether or not the bad arm of Tony Lazzeri, stellar second sacker, has recovered its old skill. Hence the bothered look Manager Miller Huggins.

AMERICANISM: Eating cold supper in the kitchen at home; dining in a swell restaurant and scolding the waiter because your plate is cold.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Andy Martin and Steve Smith will have something to fight for here Wednesday. As Martin whipped the highly touted Eddie Shea at Boston and Steve is matched to box Kid Chocolate, the winner will be in great demand. It looks as though the fans here will see a bout that would go down in any of the large cities of the country.

Johnny Jennings has been making a habit of his left hand. He has knocked out five opponents in eight rounds, a sort of Dempsey trick, which he took on Bobby Bedford of Alliance, who boxed Compton and recently drew with Young Corsey. If Jennings can get his left working it ought to be a real old-time slambang.

Chocolate fights Vic Borrone at the St. Nicholas rink, New York City, tonight. Vic is one of Martin's victims.

John Sale, Passaic policeman, advanced to record in the Erie derby and led the pack of hucksters into Effingham, Ill., Sunday.

Andy Kerr, W. & J., has signed to coach football at Colgate. Ray Rich and Hank Day are mentioned as probable successors.

In a dual track meet at Columbus, Ohio State defeated Pitt 45-10 to 41-10.

Pennsy To Have Good Ball Club

P. R. R. Baseball Team Will Try For Honors In Lawrence County League

The Pennsylvania railroad baseball team, members of the Lawrence County League, hope to be in the thick of the pennant next year. The team has only recently been organized, and the talent includes some of the best ball players in the country.

The following well known diamond stars have been signed up by Manager McCloskey to represent the Railroaders this season: Steve Hutnick, Johnny Shea, John Valley, Rodenbaugh, Centre and Meriwale as pitcher. Murphy and Carm Picaro as catchers. Sam Dominick, Harry Jones and E. Culbertson as outfielders. Micky Huff, M. Orlando, Bob Hamilton, G. Earl, J. Picarro, and McCloskey make up the infield.

Any player in Lawrence County desiring a tryout with the Pennsy team may do so by reporting tonight at 6 o'clock at the Pennsy grounds. The team will practice every evening this week.

The Pennsy team would like to have a game for Saturday April 27, with some good fast club. For games call 3352-J between 3:30 o'clock and 5 any afternoon this week. W. D. McCloskey is managing the team this year. His address is 309 Wabash avenue, New Castle.

Yankees Drop To Athletics

Lefty Grove Chases Jinx From Door As He Tames Yanks In 7 To 4 Victory

HORNSBY ONLY GETS FOUR HITS

Lefty Grove, who was beaten by the world champions 10 times in seven starts last year, today led them a 7 to 4 triumph in the first 1929 appearance against Athletics.

That performance killed jinx No. 2, Jinx No. 2, the fact that the Athletics had lost their last game with the Yankees, which they can do by winning the final game today. For the first time since 1927, the Athletics will be in three pinch-hitting for Grove.

Athletics And Braves Play Smart Baseball

Experts Have Taken Another On Chin In Early Season Predictions

Cubs Look Ripe To Stay Out In Front Of National League Flag Chase

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 22.—Politics may make strange bedfellows but baseball is the room clerk who looks them in and throws the key away. We were told, for example, that the Philadelphia Athletics were ready for the scrubwoman. They are at the top of the American League standing today. We were further informed that the Washington Senators were ready to run with a lot of cash speed. They are at the bottom. The Boston Braves, who were supposed to be ready for the department of street cleaning, are leading the National League with a percentage of 1.000.

The Braves, of course, simply got a break on the schedule. Bad as they may be, they were matched at the outset with the one club which may be worse, the Brooklyn Dodgers. The latter wins the toughest stepladder, having blown five games in as many starts to the Braves and Phillies. This ordinarily is hard to do but not for the Dodgers. They have the copy-right.

The Athletics are the real form-scorers of the two races to date. Deprived of Simmons and Ebel and coupled with the Senators and Yankees for their first two series, the situation was not exactly rosy and Mr. Mack had all he could do to lift his bosom over and above his vest pocket. Whereupon, the Athletics took two straight from the Senators, won another from the Yankees yesterday and only managed to blow a victory for Jack Quinn on Friday when an outfielder lost two fly balls in the sun.

Just Tough Break. This was a tough break for all concerned. The man was not to blame. He hadn't seen the sun since last year.

The Yankees, therefore, might well have been without a single victory today. Of course, they beat the Red Sox in the season's opener and I presume they mean to be technical and count that one, too. At that, the Senators could do no better than an even break with the Sox, which indicates that all of that training camp speed can run for Mr. Sweeney, the eminent fishmonger. The Indians are up there with the Athletics but they will be excused presently.

Chicago Cubs dropped one to the Pirates on opening day but haven't been stopped since by either the Pirates or Cardinals, hot contenders both. Yesterday Bush wrapped the Cards up inside a three-hit shutout, indicating that all of this advance megaphoning on the Cubs wasn't a lot of throat gargle. So far, they have had the pitching and the hitting and, if they ever need anything else, they'll be sure to let you know. The Giants won two from the Phillies only because their bad pitching was better than the Phils, which usually is bad beyond all contest. Outside of the fact that the Cincinnati Reds could win only one game out of five and the present status of the Braves is somewhat out of focus, the rest of the National League order isn't altogether out of character.

But what price opening day with the Athletics presumed to be shot and the Braves desecrating to be with Washington touted as the dark horse and the Indians pegged to start losing immediately and, if possible, sooner? Take nothing for granted in baseball, was the immortal advice of Harry Pullman, National League president of twenty years ago. He was only partly right. There is one thing you can take for granted in baseball and that is that you can take nothing for granted.

If he is covering the mill roof with cold lead to avoid the tax on profits, he will tell you he just can't afford to raise wages.

Sensational Debut

Four rookies ever made a more sensational big league debut than did Earl Averill, Cleveland center fielder, in the Indians' opening game with Detroit at Cleveland.

In his first trip to the plate Averill swung on the ball with his 44-ounce bat and sent it over the right field fence for a home run.

Farmer Escapes Untimely Death From Lightning

Shortly After Leaving Sheep Shed, Building Is Struck, Damage Is $2,000

WAYNESBURG, Pa., April 22.—Morris Strawn, 18, of Spraggs, Greene county, near here, was alive today because he decided to leave the shelter of a sheep shed which he had entered during a severe electrical storm yesterday.

Less than three minutes after he left the structure a bolt of lightning struck the building. It burned to the ground. Before leaving Strawn had liberated some 40 head of sheep. Four animals which remained were burned to death.

The building contained several tons of hay. The loss was estimated at $2,000.

River Improving Advocates Will Meet On Thursday

Advocates of a navigable route from the Ohio river through Beaver valley to New Castle, thence to Youngstown, will convene in the City Hall here Thursday night. A request for permission to use the hall was received by council and granted today.

There will be enthusiasts present from Beaver Falls, Youngstown and other cities along the proposed course.

Now let's have one more great national marathon to discover who can longest endure the agony of attending his own business.

SORDS POINTS

Fourteen Years In Harness And Still Going Strong

Burleigh Grimes veteran National League pitcher with the Pittsburgh Pirates and one of the few remaining contact pitchers started his 14th season in the big time by hanging up his 20th victory.

Grimes seems to be losing the boys who shortly after he came to the Pirates in 1916 predicted a short career for him. He frequently exhibited lack of ability to control his temper on the field and consequently got into league pitcher with the Pittsburgh Pirates and one of the few remaining contact pitchers started his 14th season in the big time by hanging up his 20th victory.

Pulling For "The Big Train"

By QUIN HALL

While the experting gentry seems to be pretty well agreed that Washington will finish the present season in the fifth spot in the American league, the fans are agreed that Walter Johnson, the new pilot of the Senators, is deserving a better fate and are pulling for him to finish in the first division.

While at Tampa prior to the opening of the season the "Big Train" encountered plenty of difficulties. In the first place some of his important players were holdouts and in the second place there was enough illness and injuries to keep a country doctor fairly busy. Sad Sam Jones and Goose Goslin were two of the prominent holdouts. For a time it looked as if Sad Sam wouldn't sign at all. Jones wanted more money than Clark Griffith thought he could pay. Griffith told the twirler that if the Senators had a good financial season he'd give him the extra dollar bills at the close of the year but Jones refused to gamble. Manager Johnson finally talked the Sad one into signing his contract. Goslin also signed and that relieved some of Walter's worries.

Harley Boss, Joe Judge's understudy reported at the Smoke Town training grounds with a handout in an auto accident and he was still suffering from the effects of an attack of flu. This kid had shown a lot of promise as last season wanted but he was sent home to report back in a month or two after he had fully recovered. Catcher Cliff Bolton was 16 days late in getting into camp and reported that he had picked up a case of flu on the way down. Ed Kenna, another backstop was out at Tampa with an injured thumb. Plenty of trouble but when the Senators pulled stakes from Tampa they were still confident of causing some upsets in the A. L. campaign this summer.

Johnson has some recruits who look especially promising. This fellow Bolton is only 26 years old but he burned 'em up at High Point in the Piedmont League during last year. In 92 games he hit for .403 and almost half of his blinges were for extra bases. If he can do anything like Goach who has been helping out over at the initial corner is a veteran minor leaguer who will probably be kept on the payroll by Johnson. Charley hit .357 with Little Rock last year. In the games played in the grapefruit belt Goach seemed to possess the stuff of which great sluggers are made. He is primarily a third-sacker but he shifted over across the field and handled the job well. While the Senators have Myer at the hot corner and Judge at first Johnson needs hitting of the Goach brand in the Washington lineup.

Johnson plans to stand pat on his outfield combination of Goslin, Rice, Barnes and West although Spencer Harris of Minneapolis will likely be carried along.

The "Big Train" is not making any loud predictions but he's anxious to make good and the fans will be pulling for him to do it.

Mellow-Santiago Matched To Box

CHICAGO, April 22.—Promoter Jim Mullen announced today that he had signed Johnny Mellow of Detroit and Armando Santiago of Cuba to box the 10-round semi-windup on his Phil McGraw-Jack Berg card at the Coliseum on April 30.

Mullen further announced that he had signed Sammy Mandel, world's lightweight champion, to meet the winner of the McGraw-Berg match. This latter bout is scheduled for May 14.

LIVE WIRE FATAL TO ARNOLD MAN IN FRONT OF HIS HOME

ARNOLD Pa., April 21.—Arrangements for the funeral of Peter Scarsley, 24, who was accidentally electrocuted, were being completed here today. The accident occurred yesterday when he attempted to pick up a wire which fell in front of his home. The wire carried high voltage. For several hours doctors and firemen worked over the body in an effort to revive him.

FRANKLIN Shatters Famous Desert Derby Record

... Air-cooled car flashes from Los Angeles to Phoenix and return—892 miles through torrid deserts and across rocky mountains ... in 17 hours, 47 minutes ...

NEW LOW PRICES

With the performance and quality offered by Franklin, the new low prices establish sensational new motor-car values. The One-Thirty, $2180—The One-Thirty-Five, $2485—The One-Thirty-Seven, $2775—Sedan prices f.o.b. factory.

Fighting his way through the terrific heat of sun-baked deserts and over more than 500 miles of rough, choppy, unimproved roads, Cannon Ball Baker again dramatically proved the remarkable road speed, the unvarying cooling ability and the enduring stamina of the air-cooled Franklin. In the long trip across the hot sandy waste, where water-cooled cars find it imperative to carry extra water bags to replenish boiling radiators, the air-cooled Franklin engine never once exceeded 190° operating temperature—22° cooler than the boiling point of water.

In this 892 miles of desert and mountains from Los Angeles to Phoenix and return, Franklin smashed the previous record by 1 hour and 11 minutes and averaged more than 50 miles an hour. The 17 hours and 47 minutes required by the Franklin stock sedan was more than 4½ hours better than the time it takes the fastest limited train. Such amazing motor-car performance has never been approached in the long history of road records.

It is this performance that has made possible the thrilling Airplane Feel—and enabled Franklin to conquer America's major road records. Franklin is the world's most modern motor car. To realize why Franklin is the conqueror—to experience the airplane feel, drive the car. Call us to have a car placed at your disposal.

New Stamps Are Found In Demand

Error In Printing Cause Rush Of Collectors To Buy Up Clark Stamps

On the 10th of the month, the sale of special stamps put out by the post office department, commemorating the birth anniversary of the taking of Fort Mifflin, Vincennes, Ind., by the George Rogers Clark expedition, was in great demand among stamp collectors.

In printing the stamps a defect occurred on one of the plates causing a small hole in the frame of the stamp which caused the error. For the 700 stamps printed, however, were approved of the error before the stamps were sent out to the post office and a great demand for them was made as soon as the stamps were placed on sale.

Some of the post offices did not receive any of the defective stamps. After the stamps are printed, the defect is cut in two. The break occurred along the left side of the plate and only the post offices receiving stamps from that part of the plate would have the defective ones.

One local collector stated that he had been able to secure 17 of the stamps.

Await Steel For North Street Bridge

Delay In Receiving Material Now Holding Up Work On Structure

Although some of the steel to be used in the construction of the new North street bridge is already on hand, Contractor Evers is unable to start the structural work on the bridge owing to a delay in receiving the rest of the material.

Several carloads of steel have been on the way for the past week and are supposed to be enroute between Pittsburgh and New Castle. There are several huge girders 75 feet long in the shipment. As soon as these arrive, the steel structural work will be gotten underway.

Everything is in readiness to start on the placing of the steel, workmen having erected several big derricks to handle the steel work last week.

Ask Grading Of Jackson Avenue

Property owners of Jackson avenue today asked the city to grade the boulevard between Arlington avenue and the city line. The thoroughfare will not be graded unless property owners waive all damages, claimants estimated. Inspector Dysart was instructed to obtain waivers. Meanwhile the petition presented will repose in committee.

Big Truck Skids In Open Ditch

Automobilists who traveled to Youngstown yesterday had occasion to use extreme caution.

A few miles this side of New Bedford a large truck had skidded from the road and stuck in the ditch, which had been cut out along the highway.

Tyler To Dispose Of Hodge Property

Harry Rosenbaum today offered the city $225 for the Hodge house in Neshaunock avenue, but the city refused the offer and instructed Councilman Tyler to have the building dismantled. Tyler will save and dispose of as much of the house as possible. The furniture, it is said, alone is worth $225. The action was taken when actions met in the City Building.

Dear Sir:

I would like to have you publish a notice in your newspaper that the Smith's Master Cleaners and Dyers of New Castle are not connected in any shape or form with any other dry cleaning company in the city of New Castle.

This is due to the fact that some confusion has arisen of a certain dry cleaning company who has adopted Master Cleaners as their company's name.

We have been using the name "Smith's Master Cleaners and Dyers" for advertising our business for the past five years and have established a large part of our business through this method.

Smith's is a member of the National Association of Cleaners and Dyers of the United States and Canada.
